It's All About Dollars and Sense

Annual Convention March 27 - 28 Prince Albert

It's All About Dollars and Sense at the SAASE Convention in Prince Albert

The SAASE Convention and Annual Meeting will be taking place from March 27 – 28 in Prince Albert. It will be hosted by the Prince Albert Exhibition and will be a great couple of days of workshops and networking. This year's convention has some great new features. This year's excellent convention deal is an extension of last year's Consumer Protection Program. Every Ag. Society that registers 2 delegates will receive two hand sanitizer dispensers and a case of hand sanitizer. Consumer Protection Program binders and posters will also be available for anyone not receiving them last year.

For those Ag. Societies involved in the SaskPower Clean Team program you will also have the opportunity to pick up your Clean Team shirts for the upcoming summer. There will also be an announcement regarding the expansion of the Clean Team Program. This will be made at the Awards Luncheon on Saturday March 28th. SAASE wishes to express thanks to SaskPower for their continued involvement and support of this great program, as it will be expanded to a total of 27 Ag. Societies and Exhibitions across Saskatchewan.

President's Message: Donna Sagin

Is it just me or does this winter seem to be dragging on too long? I hope that everyone has had a very safe and warm winter to this point, but I think that we are all ready for spring. There is no better way to get ready than to attend the SAASE Annual Convention that is happening in Prince Albert on March 27 and 28. As the convention theme states, "It's All About Dollars & Sense" and I hope everyone can make it out this year.

This year's convention features some fantastic workshops all related to our theme. We are very pleased to have Wynn McLean, General Manager of the Camrose Regional Exhibition talking about developing community events and partnerships. These partnerships are the future of our Ag. Societies and our communities and Wynn has plenty of experience in creating dynamic partnerships both in Camrose and in the province of Alberta. This presentation will be followed with a true account of how the town of Mortlach created a new successful event - the Mortlach Saskatoon Berry Festival. Ron Locke will share with us the challenges and opportunities this event brought to Mortlach and area.

As with every organization, strong leadership is an invaluable asset. Judy Riou from the Agriculture Council of Saskatchewan (ACAAFS), will speak on the importance of leadership in communities and community development as well as how to create leaders in your organization. Kim Chadsey of CAFE, will be bringing greetings from the national association as well as presenting the results of an indepth Economic Benefits Study that was just recently completed. The information in this report will be applicable to all fairs and I know I am anxious to hear the results from across Canada, from big exhibitions to small fairs. Kim will also be speaking on writing successful fundraising and grant applications. With grant applications requiring more information, Kim will discuss how to make sure you get the right points across to the selection committees.

Once again, every Ag. Society that registers for the convention will receive two hand sanitizing dispensers and a case of product. I hope everyone brings a Silent Auction item, as well as your wallet, as proceeds from the auction and the 50/50 draws go to the Clark and Anne Lewis Scholarships. We have a great Awards Luncheon planned with a number of presentations to be made. Finally we will finish off the convention with the SAASE Annual General Meeting.

SAASE has undertaken some exciting new projects this winter including developing a provincial Ag. Experience display with the help of Saskatoon Prairieland Park that will be available to all our members. This new display will be at our convention and we will be taking bookings for the summer so be sure to get your fair involved! We have also redeveloped our website to make it more functional and contain current information that our members can utilize. Be sure to check it out at www.saase.ca.

As I write this President's Message, I have actually taken a leave of absence from the SAASE Board of Directors. To benefit the association, I have accepted a short-term contract with SAASE in order to assist Glen with the numerous projects we have undertaken as an organization.

I look forward to seeing everyone in Prince Albert! And don't forget to book your rooms by March 13th!

SAASE Newsletter is printed quarterly and mailed on the last day of February, May, August and November. Additional copies are available from SAASE Office.

Contributions to SAASE Newsletter are welcome and will be included as space allows.

SAASE OFFICE

The SAASE Office is located in the Canada Centre complex on the Evraz Place (Regina Exhibition Park) grounds, next door to the Saskatchewan Livestock Association office on the 2nd floor. Visitors are always welcome—give Glen a call at 565-2121 and drop in.

The new SAASE Ag. Experience provincial educational display will also be set up. Ag. Societies will have the opportunity to take a look and try out the new program and all the games. SAASE will be taking bookings of the Ag. Experience for the upcoming year. Friday night the Prince Albert Exhibition also have some great plans for the host evening including shuttle service to and from the hotel, entertainment, and of course food – you won't want to miss it.

There are a number of great workshops that will take place which are listed later on in the newsletter. Make sure that you support the Clark and Anne Lewis Scholarship by bringing a silent auction item and your checkbook. If you can not make the convention you can still bid on some great items by going to the new SAASE website at www.saase.ca and checking under the convention heading.

Make sure that you fill out the awards nomination forms that were sent out. Our Awards Luncheon recognizes the great contribution that has been made by our most important asset – our volunteers. Also you can nominate someone to become a member of the SAASE board. This is an opportunity to be heard and have input into SAASE's direction for the future. You can send in the nomination forms, or make nominations right at the convention.

This year's host hotel is the Prince Albert Super 8. The convention rate for delegates is $94 per night plus taxes. You must book your rooms before March 13th. You can do so by calling the Super 8 at 953-0088. As far as registering for the convention you must book before March 13th to get the discounted convention registration rate of $75. After the 13th, registration cost goes up to $90.

SAASE has introduced a new Associate Membership, and our new Associate Members will have the opportunity to set up a display at the convention. Please make sure that you stop by and talk to those who have come out and supported SAASE. We look forward to seeing everyone at this year's convention in Prince Albert from March 27 – 28.

Ag. Experience Provincial Display

The new Ag. Experience provincial display will be unveiled at the SAASE convention this year. Saskatoon Prairieland Park featured the Ag. Experience at their Exhibition last year, and have helped SAASE put together this display which will be accessible to all our Ag. Societies.

The display has 4 separate sections on beef, dairy, poultry and pork. Each commodity has a pop-up display that has signage and information, as well as an interactive game that is played on a laptop computer. As well as some great information and the games, the display also comes with an activity/coloring book and a teacher's guide. Ag. Societies will be able to book the display at the Convention.

Support for the project has come from:

BITS & BITES

- Remember to bring your Silent Auction item and checkbook. Proceeds from the Silent Auction and 50/50 draws support the Clark and Anne Lewis Scholarships. Check out some of the great items already donated on the SAASE website. Remember if you can not make it to the convention you can still email or phone Glen and get your bid in.
- The new SAASE website is now online at www.saase.ca. Check it out and let us know what you think.
- The "It's A Pizza" display and "Ag Experience" display are available for bookings. The displays come with a Teacher's Guide as well as coloring books for the students who will go through them. Book them by contacting the SAASE office. Check out the Ag. Experience display at this year's SAASE convention in Prince Albert.
- Thanks to all the Ag. Societies for getting the Directors Reports in. The checks will be included with the convention packages in Prince Albert. For those of you that can not make it to the convention they will be mailed out. They are late this year, because it took a while to get all the reports into the SAASE office from all the Ag. Societies - thanks for your patience.
- For those Ag. Societies involved with the SaskPower Clean Team, the T Shirts will once again be available for pickup at the SAASE convention in Prince Albert. We will also be announcing the expansion of the Clean Team to include another 7 Ag. Societies, which will bring the total to 27 Clean Teams in Saskatchewan.

Saskatoon Prairieland Park Presents Gardenscape

It's time to shake off the winter doldrums and surround yourself with the art of nature at Gardenscape – Saskatchewan's original gardening, landscaping, and outdoor living show. The Prairieland Park Trade Centre in Saskatoon will be transformed into an oasis of green from March 27 – 29.

Gardenscape is a showcase of the industry's best products and services. A one stop shop for all your gardening needs, including pots, plant materials, tools, mowers, designer innovations, garden art and so much more! You'll find everything for outdoor living – from furniture to fire pits. With a record 139 exhibitors and more than 420 booths, the show is bigger and better than ever third only to Toronto and Vancouver. If you are interested in sprucing up your yard, want the latest information on gardening and food production, or are interested in specialty flower and vegetable seeds, Gardenscape offers 170,000 square feet of trade and exhibit space.

There will be nine feature display gardens designed and built to enhance the expanded facilities at Prairieland Park. Each garden will feature a theme and is bursting with blooms, leafy trees and lush greenery. Over 1300 pots of bulbs and 30 trees were forced in preparation for this annual display.

This year's feature speaker is award-winning journalist, broadcaster, author, and environmental activist Des Kennedy. Kennedy has appeared on a variety of regional and national television and radio programs. For eight years he was a weekly columnist on the national CBC television program Middy, contributing pieces on gardening, country living and natural history. Des Kennedy appears courtesy of Early's Farm & Garden Centre. Check for presentation times for Des, Guest Speaker Dr. Philip Ronald and many other industry experts on the web www.saskatoonex.com.

NEW this year is the Butterflies and Blooms exhibit featuring 5,000 live exotic and native butterflies in a 4,000 square foot walk-through butterfly house. Both children and adults will be fascinated with the experience of becoming a landing site for these delicate, beautiful creatures.

While at Gardenscape, imagine the yard or garden of your dreams while relaxing in the Prairie Berry Café or Bistro and Wine Garden. And don't forget to check out the GardenScapes Art Show and Sale, featuring Saskatchewan artists depicting outdoor and floral themes in their works. And don't miss the Plant Auction on Sunday, March 29 beginning at 6:30 p.m. – a great opportunity to get a head start on your purchases for the coming season. Get ready for spring at Gardenscape 2009!

Keegano Magic and Entertainment - New SAASE Member

Keegano Magic and Entertainment joins SAASE as an Associate Member, and will be joining us at the SAASE convention in Prince Albert.

Whatever your entertainment needs, "Keegano Magic & Entertainment" will always cater to best suit your function requirements and budget. Any show is always moldable to what you require. We are willing to travel anywhere across Saskatchewan and surrounding area. Give us a call and tell us what you need, and we will work with you to come up with a solution together. Remember, if you have any type of event whether it is a birthday party, staff party, or community festival, when you call "Keegano Magic & Entertainment" one call gets it all.

Keegano has been doing magic for over fourteen years. At the age of twenty-four, he's been performing magic for over half of his life. He started off performing for classmates and doing birthday parties. By the time he was eighteen years old he had performed stage shows across Saskatchewan, including Regina Saskatchewan's Buffalo Days, Medieval feasts, and corporate Christmas parties. Keegano regularly frequents local establishments and performs his skills whenever an opportunity arises. Keegano's love has always been entertaining. Whether it be performing magic routines, or hosting karaoke parties, Keegano loves it all.

Keegano has an arsenal of performing styles. For children's entertainment, he act as a nerdy yet loveable magician dressed in bright colors. Children love this type of show because of Keegano's outlandish personality that can make anybody laugh. He also performs stage magic in a more suave and sophisticated manor, often with upbeat music. For more relaxed and intimate atmospheres, he performs in a casual fashion, feeling free to communicate with his audience and perform fantastic magic in the hands of the spectators.

Aside from just magic, Keegano also does balloon sculpting. Using balloons, he can make just about anything that can be requested. From dogs, cats, horses, and fish all the way to Spiderman, Dr. Octopus, T-Rex and yes, even a bicycle. This type of entertainment is fantastic for kids on it's own or especially as an addition to any children's magic show. If requested, face painting is also available for children's parties. The face painters that work with Keegano are definitely some of the best face painters available in the industry. They have been painting faces for over six years and have worked many festivals across Canada.

If you are looking for more interactive entertainment, Keegano also hosts Karaoke parties. With a wide array of music styles that include classic rock and roll, country, pop, modern rock, and even hip-hop; he has something for everybody. These parties have been very popular and by request he can also include lighting effects such as strobe lights, fog machines, and much more.

You can check out Keegano online at www.keeganomagic.ca. You can also email him at keegano@keeganomagic.ca, or give him a call at 737-2151.

D.J. & Friends Family Entertainment

kids are into, which of course makes it easier for me to put on a show that they'll like." And like it they do. So much in fact that he is booking shows well into 2010. "Once I've done a fair and they see the value in what it is I do, rebookings are quite common.

Whether he's riding in the saddle atop his trusty steed Buster or entertaining a crowd of youngsters on stage, D.J. Warkentin is a professional entertainer sure to please any crowd. Having performed at numerous fairs and festivals throughout Canada since 1986, this veteran entertainer is pleased to be part of the SAASE family.

"I love performing, it's what I do", says Warkentin. When he's not travelling across Canada during the summer months, he is still busy as a music composer for children's cartoons and television shows. Having worked on such productions as "The Big Comfy Couch", "Caillou", and "Mona the Vampire". Says Warkentin, "It keeps me current and in touch with what the I've been performing at the Calgary Stampede for over 13 years," adds Warkentin. "I'm pretty happy about that!"

From Victoria to Quebec, D.J. is no stranger to the road. "I often joke that three different sets that I can do. My strolling show is a unique interactive thing that gets kids involved. They spin a lasso or we sing a song. But they really like "Buster" my horse. Visually it's very funny. The question I get asked most by children is, ..."Is that a real horse?"

Although his schedule is starting to fill up this year, Warkentin adds that there are still some dates available for the 2009 summer season, and is hoping to get a chance to see a little bit more of Saskatchewan this summer. "It's always nice when you spend time closer to home than having to travel too far

I'm a full time driver and a part time entertainer during the summer fair season," says Warkentin of the many miles he has driven during his career.

"I suppose what makes my show so popular is the fact that I have more than one show to offer. If someone is looking for a kids stage show that's not a problem for me as I have two or west of east," says Warkentin. "After all, I am a prairie boy," he adds with a smile.

Kid Tested and Proven

Hoja to Appear at SAASE Convention

Fat Cat Productions, from Saskatoon, has been added to the growing list of new SAASE Associate Members. One of Fat Cat Production's feature act will be heading up the Friday night host entertainment at this year's SAASE convention in Prince Albert. Canada's favorite acappella heroes HOJA will bring their high energy show to the SAASE convention.

For those who have seen HOJA perform in the past, you will be looking forward to Friday night - for those of you who have not seen HOJA you are in for a big treat. HOJA is taking bookings for the 2009 fair season, and their performance at the SAASE convention will show you why they have played over 3,000 performances for well over half a million Canadians nation-wide.

Ask yourself; Does your audience like to laugh? Do they like great music? If so then they will love HOJA! From doo wop to rock, disco to country: no genre is safe from Canada's acapella heroes! Great harmonies, energetic choreography, and hilarious antics make HOJA a must-see for ages 5 - 95.

HOJA performs high energy "modern" acapella: using only live human voices to sound like a full band. They not only sing and harmonize, but also mimic percussion and a variety of instruments. Audience members often can not believe the full band sound the group generates using only 3 human voices. HOJA delivers an outstanding performance filled with incredible harmonies, laughs, surprises and audience participation that will definitely get your blood pumping.

HOJA delivers fun, popular music that crosses all styles: Pretty Woman, Friends in Low Places, Lion Sleeps Tonight, YMCA, Stayin' Alive, and 500 Miles are just a few of songs that they deliver in their unique style. Since their inception in 1998, HOJA has recorded 5 full length CD's with sales totalling over 25,000 copies.

By booking HOJA, your fair will receive many unique benefits. HOJA has an affordable bottom line fee which includes a sound system, so there are no hidden costs to you. The setup is hassle free - allowing volunteers to deal with the rest of their event. HOJA can tailor and adjust their show to fit all sizes and shapes of stage areas and room types, as well as tailoring their presentation to the audience type in attendance. Your audience will love the great harmonies, cool and exciting vocal arrangements, hilarious schtick, and energetic choreography. Your audience will walk away energized and feeling good! HOJA's performance is also risk free - if you are not satisfied they will return your performance fee. Guaranteed.

To get a look at some of HOJA's video and sound clips take a look at their online press kit at - <http://www.fatcatuniverse.com/fairfestival> (upgrade being completed in March) It contains audio samples, video clips, press releases, brochures, photos and so much more.

SAASE is very pleased to have HOJA appearing at our convention in Prince Albert. For more information or to book HOJA talk to Trent Funk or Aaron Chubb at Fat Cat Productions. 1-888-932-8228 or email bookings@fatcatuniverse.com.

SAASE Online With New Website

As of the beginning of March, SAASE is online with a brand new website. One of the first things that you will notice is that there is a great deal more information on the website. The old website was replaced because of how inflexible it was, which made it very difficult to keep updated. The most important thing with websites, is that there must be current information on it, and the new format gives SAASE the opportunity to be more up to date with information than in the past.

There is now a Convention section on the website where you will have the chance to check out everything that we are doing with the convention. The hotel link, sponsors, program, and registration information are all there.

Another page under the convention section is the Silent Auction page. The Silent Auction takes place at the convention with the proceeds from it going to the Clark and Anne Lewis Scholarship. SAASE has already received some great items for the auction, and you can take a look at them on the website. For those of you who are unable to make the convention this year you will still have an opportunity to bid on the items. Email Glen at gduck.saase@sasktel.net or phone 565-2121 with your maximum bid for any of the items listed on the website. We will make sure that bid gets placed at the convention. Some of the great items on the website include a game used Saskatchewan Roughriders football signed by Wes Cates, Luca Congi and Michael Bishop, a signed picture of Gordie Howe, a signed Jean Beliveau 1956 Sports Illustrated cover, a Team Canada hockey package, and a crew backpack from Corner Gas. There is also a Molsons Calgary Flames package, a Native art print, Coca-Cola Golf Package as well as a very rare item - a Canadian Western Agribition silver belt buckle. Check them out on the website and if you can't make the convention but still want an item let Glen know.

A new section on the website is the Consumer Protection Program that includes signage and checklists for your fair to use. Another new section is the Ag. Education link that contains all the information on our new Ag. Experience and It's a Pizza. Also included in this section is a booking form and Teacher's Manual.

The website has info on our members, videos and pictures from individual fairs and links to those that have websites. It has a detailed calendar of events and member contact information. You can also find a section on our Associate Members - businesses and organizations that support the fair industry. There are links to their individual websites as well. Check out the website before the convention and let us know what you think. If there are any suggestions please forward them to Glen.
